

DEAN HILL

MUSIC WORKSHOPS

Dean Hill's music workshops will be tailored to meet the needs of the individual students. Participants needing help on basic, intermediate to advance fundamentals in small group settings. Band workshops will be designed to equip a selected group of band students with a desire to achieve a chair in the prestigious Dallas All City and Region bands. We will provide the students the audition materials with systematic guided practices to help students prepare for the audition process. Note these processes also will help student to better achieve scholarship and improve their leadership skills.

Participants age 12 and older