

HAILEE DYER

LITERARY/SPOKEN WORD WORKSHOPS

The writing workshop is centered around storytelling and creative expression through writing. We will read cool, inspiring works and then allow each participant to write their own story with the allotted time. This workshop can also be built up or scaled down based on the age, needs, demographics, or purpose of the organization or event. (These topics can be taught in a fun way or in a more mature way based on the needs of the audience/participants - as well as the content can be centered around Black American Experiences and or the needs of the event.

THEATER/ACTING WORKSHOPS

Acting workshops will give each participant the opportunity to see what it is like to have fun on stage. Participants will highlight running lines, practice improvisation, fun warm up techniques/games, and experiment with tone, and other fundamental devices. (These topics can be taught in a fun way or in a more mature way based on the needs of the audience/participants - as well as the content can be centered around Black American Experiences and or the needs of the event - for example: Black History Month: Let's highlight the works of black playwrights in America).

THEATER/ACTING PERFORMANCES

Hailee Dyer's performances are centered around identity within the black American experience highlighting cultural topics such as identity, struggles with purpose and managing the lifestyle of today's generation. There are short form pieces for performance touching these topics and a longer one-woman piece allowing participants to journey through the scope of the topics at hand. As a writer and an actress, Hailee is able to write pieces based on the topic at hand. This is quite fun and allows participants to have tailored experiences.

Participants age 6 and older
