

SOUTH DALLAS CONCERT CHOIR

MUSIC PERFORMANCE

South Dallas Concert Choir provides performances that include concerts in Celebration of Negro Spirituals which highlights traditional and contemporary arrangements, Music that Shaped America which features music by various artists who contributed to the fabric of American music, Sacred Music by African American Composers which explores a full range of sacred music and Anthems by African American composers, Black History Month Concert - This concert, usually held during February of each year, focuses on helping the audience understand cultural diversity through a program featuring the works of various African American artists and composers, and more

Audiences aged 12 and older